

Racism: The Lasting Legacy of Slavery in the Midwestern Metropolis

A Public History Forum presented by UC's History Department featuring visiting scholar:

Dr. Tiya Miles, University of Michigan

Professor of American Culture,
Afro-American and African Studies,
History, Women Studies,
and Native American Studies

Panel Members:

Christine Anderson, Dept. of History, Xavier University

Holly McGee, Dept. of History, University of Cincinnati

Betty Ann Smiddy, College Hill Historical Society

Brian Taylor, Black Lives Matter Cincinnati

Moderator:

Fritz Casey-Leininger, Dept. of History, University of Cincinnati

Free and open to the public:
Thursday, September 29, 2016,
4:00-6:00 pm
First Unitarian Church, 536
Linton Street, Cincy 45219

Sponsored by the UC History Department, the Charles Phelps Taft Research Center, the Dean of Arts and Sciences, and the African American Cultural Resource Center.

For questions, please contact Brianna Leavitt-Alcantara at levantba@ucmail.uc.edu